ARCHITECTURAL SERVICES.

BASE MODEL / MASTERS

We assist builders by creating or maintaining base models tailored to their needs. Starting with a sketch or updating display home drawings, we ensure accurate production of base designs. These models streamline the design process, offering flexibility for customisation and reducing turnaround times.

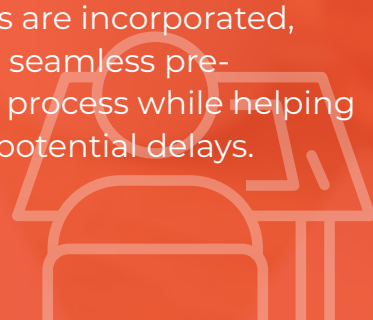

SALES SKETCHES

Sales Sketches at Resource X Global transform base models or display homes into tailored designs that meet specific client needs. These detailed sketches provide a clear visual representation, helping potential buyers envision their dream project while supporting your marketing efforts and enhancing client engagement.

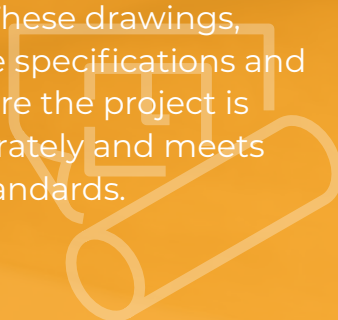

DA & PLANNING DRAWINGS

Resource X Global creates planning application drawings tailored to your specific needs. Our detailed and precise approach ensures that all requested updates and requirements are incorporated, supporting a seamless pre-construction process while helping to minimise potential delays.

WORKING DRAWINGS

We produce detailed working drawings, also known as construction drawings or building plans, essential for obtaining building permits and guiding construction. These drawings, used alongside specifications and addenda, ensure the project is executed accurately and meets compliance standards.

FINAL SELECTIONS

At Resource X Global, we create detailed final selections drawings based on choices made during pre-start processes or provided by the builder. We ensure these decisions—such as tapware, tiles, and basins—are accurately documented, aligning with the builder's vision and streamlining project execution.

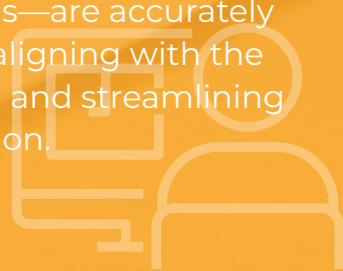

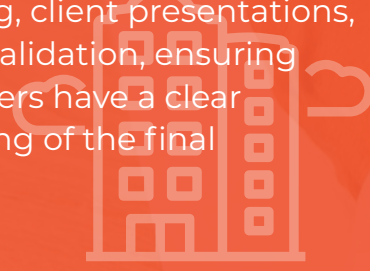

PHOTO REALISTIC RENDERS

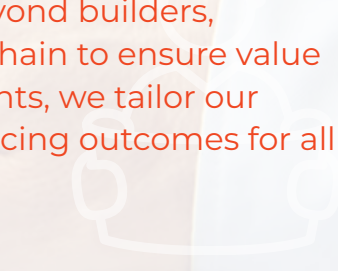

Our photo realistic rendering services transform architectural designs into lifelike visualisations, enabling clients to experience projects before construction begins. These high-quality images are ideal for marketing, client presentations, and design validation, ensuring all stakeholders have a clear understanding of the final outcome.

PRODUCTION ESTIMATING

At Resource X Global, our quantity surveying services are a vital component of efficient project management and financial clarity. Supported by a skilled team of over 40 professionals, we provide detailed and accurate assessments of material requirements, labor costs, and associated expenses.

Using advanced tools and proven methodologies, we streamline workflows and deliver precise cost estimations.
